

Drainless Pools

A no-drainer: In a pool without a main drain, skimmers should be placed to accommodate wind direction and/or flow pattern (below). In all cases, position the returns to move the water so it passes in front of skimmer openings at a moderate speed. No returns should move the water to the skimmers closer than 10 feet from the openings. Locate returns so they move water at the surface and near the bottom.

ILLUSTRATIONS BY DAN JOHNSON